Local Reports.
—"Sporting" with parlor rifles is fashionable in Winnsboro this season.

—Thursday and Friday were remarkably cool days for this latitude and season of the year.

—One trio of White Guineas for sale. Apply to Shannon McCreight.

—Mrs. A. G. Brice, of Ches-ter, has been visiting friends in Winnsboro for the past three or four days.

—We have two Osborn Reapers on hand, which we will sell cheaper than any other reaper in the market.

May 24—R. J. McCARLEY & Co.
—The cool weather of the past few days has done considerable injury to the young cotton and it is drying out in places.

—Sam. D. Fant's is the place to buy Cooking and Heating Stoves, Tinware, etc. Call on him, as he will not be undersold.

—The winds and rains of the past week have caused the oats in places to fall to the ground, and it will be somewhat difficult to harvest them.

—Mount Zion College realized about twelve dollars from Prof. Reade's entertainment in the Court House on last Tuesday night.

—The President of the Bachelors' Union met with an embarrassing accident while out sporting two or three days ago. He shouldn't get excited.

—The Democratic clubs in the various townships will begin shortly to hold their meetings for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention in June.

—The new schedule of the passenger trains on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad is regarded by the business men here as better and more convenient than the old.

—Mr. John Taylor, one of the petitioners for the June term of the Court of General Sessions here, lives twenty-eight miles from Winnsboro, and was in town on Monday for the first time in thirty-three years.

—Do your own printing with the Rubber Printing Stamps, manufactured by Sam. D. Fant. Call and see samples of work.

—A partridge was shot and killed in the court-house yard several days ago. Strange hardihood for a timid bird, but perhaps it presumed on the protection of the law when it stood in the shadow of the court-house. It is a violation of the game laws to kill partridges this season of the year.

—Call at the office of R. J. McCARLEY & Co. and leave your order for the Waynesboro "Edipose" Grain Separator, the best grain sower in the market.

Mar 20
—It has been hinted that we were selfish in our suggestion to the town authorities to pass an ordinance prohibiting the opening of gates on the sidewalks. The present arrangement is not personally inconvenient to us, either in the day or night time, but it is to others, and to many others, too, and why should not the Council enact such an ordinance?

—We desire to call special attention to the mill advertisements in to-day's issue. Mr. Swygert now has the public highways leading to his mill in splendid condition, and he offers inducements to customers that are tempting. Mr. Gladson also runs an old historic mill in the Rocky Mount section of the county, and will give as good flour and meal as any one can wish.

—If you want any Stove Pipe Sam. D. Fant will sell it for the next thirty days at twenty cents per joint of two feet. Sizes from three to six inches.

—Mr. Thos. M. Cathcart has our thanks for some excellent ice cream and soda water, sent to this office a few days ago. Mr. Cathcart's ice cream is certainly good enough for the most fastidious taste, and his soda water will cool the hottest and quench the thirst of the thirstiest. Ladies and gentlemen should call at his saloon, next door to the bank, and give his ice cream and soda water a trial.

PERSONAL.—Miss Lulu Habenicht, of Charleston, is in Winnsboro visiting relatives, and expects to spend the summer. We wish her a pleasant stay.

GOING TO IRELAND.—Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Walker, both of this place, left home for New York on last Monday, the 26th inst. From New York city they will sail on next Saturday, the 31st inst., in company with the Rev. Robt. Lathan, D. D., of Yorkville, on the steamer Austral of the Anchor Line. We wish for them a pleasant visit to the "old country."

THE READING ROOM CLUB.—We are requested to state that there will be an important meeting of the Reading Room Club at Dr. Hanahan's office this afternoon at 5.30 o'clock. This is the time for renewal of subscriptions and something must be done now in that direction. We hope every one interested in the success of the reading-room will attend the meeting.

SURVIVORS OF THE OLD SIXTH.—There will be an important meeting of the survivors of the Sixth Regiment, S. C. V., in this place on Saturday, the 14th inst. The meeting is called for the purpose of taking steps preparatory to the annual reunion of the regiment in this place on the first day in August and for the trans-acting of other important business. The meeting is earnestly desired.

FINE FLOUR.—Mr. John E. Robertson sends to THE NEWS AND HERALD a sack of excellent flour ground from wheat just harvested by him. The grinding was done at the mill of Mr. E. W. Parker, at Ridgeway—which is acknowledged to be one of the finest in the county.

DROWNED.—Mr. John Smith and a colored man, whose name is unknown to us, were drowned in Broad River near Wallaceville, in this county, on the 27th ult. They were both from Lexington county and came into the river in a bateau for the purpose of fishing. The river was high and at that point rough and swift. Both parties were in some way thrown out of their boat and drowned. The body of the negro has been recovered, but the body of Mr. Smith has not yet been found.

WORK OF THE LADIES.—The ladies of Blackstock and vicinity gave an entertainment in the way of a straw-berrie festival at Blackstock. The object was to raise money to defray the expenses of putting an iron fence around the graveyard of the Concord Presbyterian church at Woodward's. A considerable sum was realized, and in a short time the indefatigable ladies of Blackstock and Woodward's will have the churchyard substantially and elegantly enclosed.

DEATH.—Information has been received of the death of Mr. William F. Watt at his home in Starkville, Miss., on the 29th ult. Mr. Watt had been suffering much for several months prior to his death from consumption, and that disease was the cause of his death. The deceased was about fifty-seven years of age, and left a wife and one child. Mr. Watt was formerly a citizen of this county, and his many friends here will be sorry to learn of his death.

ACCEPTED.—Mr. J. R. Harvey, the corresponding secretary of the Twelfth Regiment Survivors' Association, received several days ago the following from Col. McCrady, of Charleston:

CHARLESTON, May 26, 1884.
DEAR SIR—I have to acknowledge the receipt of your note informing me that at the meeting of the Twelfth Regiment in August last I was to deliver the annual address on the third Thursday in August next, and to say that it will give me pleasure to comply with the request of the Regiment. I am, very respectfully,
EDWARD MCCRADY, JR.

A CANDIDATE'S CARD.—The Columbia Register says:

A candidate for clerk of the court in one of the counties in this State commences his card thus:

"If the loss of my right arm in the war entitles me to the support of my fellow-citizens, I respectfully ask said support."

If this constitutes the sole claim of the candidate, he makes a good showing for sympathy but a poor one for the office. The loss of a limb in the Confederate service does not of itself give any man a claim on office. If all things else are equal such a man ought to have a preference, otherwise not.

THE COTTON PLANT.—The June number has just been received. The Cotton Plant is the only paper in the State published exclusively in the interest of the farmer, and should be supported by every farmer in the State and South. Among the valuable correspondence in the issue before us we notice a letter from Col. Jas. H. Rion, showing how to plant lucerne, which alone is worth the subscription price of the paper for a year. The Cotton Plant is a beautifully printed, eight-page, forty-column paper at the very low price of sixty cents a year.

THE HEALTH OF WINNSBORO.—"McM." in a communication in these columns several days ago, complains that we did Winnsboro an injustice in our allusion to the health of the town. We don't think the local notice would warrant the inference that Winnsboro is an unhealthy place. We meant to convey the idea that the cause of sickness here was temporary in the State and would be likely to affect the healthiest of localities. Winnsboro has always been and is now one of the healthiest towns in South Carolina and this fact will scarcely be denied by any one.

DEATHS.—Mrs. Nancy Lanhorn, of Ridgeway, died on Friday last, the 23rd inst., in the eightieth year of her age. Mrs. Lanhorn left no surviving children, but her many friends and relatives will sorrow over her death. Her many virtues and Christian character entitle her to the kind remembrance of all good people, and her death is a loss to the community.

Mr. William E. Parker, of the firm of Parker & Bro., of Ridgeway, also died, at his home, in that place, on Tuesday, the 20th inst., of consumption. Mr. Parker was about thirty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and four children. Mr. Parker was a useful, active and energetic citizen, and Fairfield county, in his death, sustains a loss.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.—It is not long now before the County Convention will meet here and we hope a tariff resolution will be unanimously and enthusiastically adopted by that body. The agitation, if effectual, must begin at home, and Democrats right here in Fairfield county are as vitally interested in the outcome of the discussion and the attitude of the party, as the National Convention at Chicago will be. The News and Courier says of the tariff resolution recently adopted by the County Convention at Chesterfield:

Chesterfield county takes a bold and firm stand on the tariff question, and calls for standard-bearers who shall stand upon the Democratic platform of opposition to protective taxes and fight the battle of reform. Each county should declare its opinions in like manner. It will help to bring the young men to the front, and there is need of young men in the party.

WILLOUGHBY READE.—The entertainment announced in these columns for Tuesday evening last was moderately good and fairly enjoyed by the audience. The programme consisted of recitations by Prof. Reade, and some of the selected pieces were tragical in character, while others were comical and humorous. The entertainment was in the Court House, and lasted for two hours. Comedy and tragedy were judiciously mixed, and Prof. Reade's recitations were well rendered and generally appreciated by his hearers. "The Lady or the Tiger" and "The Mad Man and his Lost Annette" were the best impersonated characters among those of a tragical type, while the comedies proved laughable and enjoyable. The entertainment being a benefit performance, it is especially to be regretted that the audience was small. We are unable to give a statement of the net receipts, but they are certainly not sufficient to defray the expenses of supplying water for the teachers and pupils of Mount Zion College.

A HOME COME.—In a difficulty at Rock City, in this county, on last Thursday night, Sandy Robertson shot and mortally wounded Allen Delleny. The unfortunate affair grew out of a prosecution instituted against Sandy Robertson by a colored woman several days ago, Allen Delleny taking the woman's part. From the prisoner's statement and from the version given by other parties present, it appears that Sandy Robertson was on Thursday evening, about dark, walking home from Rock City in company with Sarah Williams, and just before reaching the railroad crossing near the quarry they were met by Allen Delleny and Samper Gregg. The former accosted Robertson about the difficulty with the woman on the day previous, and used violent and abusive language. According to the prisoner's side of the case, Delleny presented his pistol to Robertson's breast and said that he intended killing him. Robertson knocked up the weapon, drew his own pistol and fired at Delleny, wounding him in the forehead. Delleny died from the effects of the wound late Thursday night, and Robertson promptly surrendered himself to the sheriff on Friday morning. Both the prisoner and the deceased are negroes, and they had been on friendly terms up to within a short time of the killing.

MORE OF THE TOURNAMENT.—It will be interesting to the members of the Steam Fire Engine Company to know what preparations are being made in Columbia for the reception and what companies they will have to compete. The Columbia Register, of the 29th inst., says:

The prospects of a grand success of the Columbia firemen's tournament increase each day that the celebration draws nearer.

At a meeting of the executive committee Messrs. N. W. Trump and S. W. Rowan were appointed terminal judges.

Arrangements have been made with the hotels and boarding houses for the accommodation of 800 firemen.

All the hotels and boarding houses are in daily receipt of letters reserving accommodations for visitors, especially in eligible locations. This shows the necessity of prompt notification to the secretary of the executive committee, Mr. H. Frank Moulton, of the number of men each company will bring, so that the difficulty will be experienced in securing accommodations. Each visiting company will confer a great favor by giving prompt attention to this request.

The Florence steamer and reel will come with fifty men.

The Winthip steamer and reel of Georgetown, will come with twenty-three men, including a band of music.

The secretary has received a letter from the chief of the fire department of Macon, Ga., stating that the Mechanics No. 4, of that city, and probably one or two other companies will participate in the Columbia tournament.

Official information has been received that Clinch, No. 2, Vigilant, No. 3, and Alert, No. 9, of Augusta, and also the Clinch Base Ball Club, will enter the lists.

Major Ed. Willis, of Charleston, has organized a team of ten of the swiftest runners of the old volunteer department of the city, who are practicing for the Columbia tournament.

The Hornet steamer and the Pioneer reel, of Charlotte, N. C., have decided to participate in the Columbia tournament, and are practicing for the occasion. The Hornets will be the steamer prize and the Pioneer the first reel prize at the recent contest in Charlotte, and they expect to beat their winning time in this city. That is the way to talk it.

The Entertainment Thursday Night.
An excellent entertainment was given to an appreciative audience in the Thespian Hall last Thursday evening, and the Thespian Corps is to be congratulated upon the successful rendition of the play and farce. It was known in the early afternoon that the crowd would be unusually large, and at eight o'clock men, women and children began hurrying towards the hall, and in a short time every reserved seat was filled, and even the "peanut gallery" groaned beneath a burden of living beings. We said "the peanut gallery groaned," and it did, for we heard its echoes to the front amid the elite of Winnsboro. Seats gave way, gentlemen suddenly came in rude contact with the hard floor, and the ladies near by were embarrassed and shocked at the spectacle. But quiet was restored again and before nine o'clock the curtain rose and the performance began. "Among the Breakers" was the first and principal part of the programme, and with its performance the audience was first entertained. The following is the cast of characters, to wit: David Murray, Keeper of Fairpoint Light, J. H. Harden; Larry Divine, his Assistant, G. B. McCants; Hon. Bruce Hunter, O. Y. Owings; Clarence Hunter, his Ward, H. B. McMaster; Peter Paragraph, a Newspaper Reporter, T. W. Landersale; Sand, Hunter's Colored Servant, Sam. Johnston; Miss Minnie Daze, Hunter's Niece, Miss E. Landersale; Bess Starbright, "Cast up by the Waves," Miss L. Gerig; Mother Carey, a Reputed Fortune Teller, Miss N. A. Phinney; Biddy Bean, an Irish Girl, Miss R. B. McMaster.

"Among the Breakers" is a beautiful melo-drama in but two acts, and was certainly well suited to the tastes of a Winnsboro audience, and having this much to start with, the talented members of the corps had no difficulty in impressing themselves and their respective impersonations favorably upon the assembled crowd. Mr. Johnston's Send and Mr. McCants's Larry Divine were exceptionally well rendered, and Winnsboro pronounces them comedians of more than ordinary ability. Messrs. Owings and Harden represented the more serious characters and the fine passages in their respective parts were well spoken. Mr. Landersale was the representative of the press, Mr. McMaster, the lover, of course, Miss Landersale, the "romantic" character of the play, Miss Gerig, the brave, fair girl of the sea, Miss Phinney, the witch and fortune reader, and Miss McMaster, the honest Irish girl, and all of the characters were well presented and heartily appreciated by the audience.

Two beautiful songs, entitled, "Only a Dear Little Flower" and "Cousin Jedediah," sung by Messrs. W. N. Chandler, G. L. Huey, J. G. McCants and D. R. Fleniken, contributed the second part of the programme. There was unfortunately a little halt in the beginning of the first piece, but it amounted to nothing, and the singing was good enough for the most fastidious.

The evening's programme was concluded with a farce entitled, "The Boston Dip." The following is the cast of characters, to wit: Mr. Moses Mulligrah, one Proprietor of a Fish Cart, now a Rich Speculator, C. M. Chandler; Monsieur Adams, a Dancing Man, R. B. Hanahan; Mr. Richard Dasher, a Fast Man, H. E. Ketchin; Mr. Lavender Kids, an Exquisite, T. W. Landersale; Mrs. Moses Mulligrah, Miss N. A. Phinney; Miss Ida Mulligrah, Miss S. Gladden; Miss Eva Mulligrah, Miss N. Davis.

The farce was short but well selected and really enjoyed. Mr. Landersale, as the "dude," was inimitable, and everybody was favorably impressed with the impersonations of the other characters also. The ladies were charming and just "too utterly too too."

The band furnished excellent music during the evening. Elegant ice cream was served under the auspices of the ladies, the proceeds of which will also be given to the band.

This ended the published programme and the most substantial information that we can give is that ninety dollars were realized by the entertainment. This fund, after the payment of expenses, will be given to the Citizens' Cornet Band.

After the performance the ladies and gentlemen remained in the hall and danced until two o'clock. The whole occasion passed off very pleasantly indeed, and the Thespian Corps should be happy.

THE SALEM CLUB.

The Salem Democratic Club reorganized on Saturday, the 31st of May, and unfurled their colors to the breeze. The honest and faithful discharge of duty on the part of the officers of the last campaign was duly appreciated by the club, which led to the re-election of the same. The selection of delegates came next in order, which resulted in the unanimous election of the following-named gentlemen: Capt. I. H. Means, J. L. Richmond, D. M. Milling, B. H. James, Thomas Wilks, with Messrs. J. D. Aiken and Martin Yongue as alternates.

I hardly deem it necessary to say the Salemites are solid—numbering one hundred enrolled members—notwithstanding some few subjects who have strayed from the fold, whom we really wouldn't have missed had not the groans on their backs come so visibly to the front.

We ever here would like to know what the crop of candy-dates (as the women folks are teaching the children to call them) is going to be like in order to plant a watermelon-patch to correspond. It is really true that Fairfield is not to be fully represented in the Legislature? It seems so.

We of the farming class are very busy harvesting the finest small grain crop that our land has been blessed with for years. So say older and more experienced heads.

Candidates, the Salemites are one hundred strong. So if you are a man of our choice and would condescend to pay us a visit it would cause a pig to be slapped in the face, a chicken to be choked, and the churndasher to be propelled at the rate of seventy-five miles per hour. Come one! Come all!

D. M. MILLING, Secretary.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Two Ladies Almost Killed by Lightning—Neighborhood Notes.

MONTICELLO, May 29.—Yesterday afternoon there was a narrow escape from death by lightning in this neighborhood.

A large tree within ten feet of the house of Mr. G. Neal was struck, severely shocking Mrs. Neal and her daughter Miss Minnie. To the latter especially, the shock was most severe, prostrating her upon the floor in an insensible condition, in which she remained for some length of time. I learn, however, that both mother and daughter have entirely recovered.

Mr. Neal, who was at a little distance from the house was also shocked slightly. Bark and splinters from the tree were thrown into the house. The escape of the inmates seems almost miraculous.

There have been abundant rains in this part of the county of late—indeed, some of our planters say too much. The wheat crop is said to be excellent, oats not so good as they promised earlier in the spring. Corn is very promising thus far and the stand of cotton excellent. Our planters are well advanced with their work, many of them having "chopped out" to a stand.

There has been a good deal of sickness in the country, but I hear of no recent deaths. Yes, one is dead—one Politics dead as "ze nail on ze door"—died of hard work. Wouldn't it be good to the old State if resurrection should be indefinitely postponed?

I have forgotten to mention that several planters in this vicinity have "invested" in self-binding reapers. A noteworthy step in agricultural progress, whereof we are proud and hopeful.

THE CEDAR CREEK CLUB.

Pursuant to notice by the president the Cedar Creek Democratic Club met at their headquarters at Dunlap's Mill, on Saturday last.

The meeting was called to order by the president, who briefly stated the object of the meeting. The Club proceeded to reorganize by electing the following officers:

President—J. S. Gannell.

Vice-President—J. W. Robinson.

Secretary and Treasurer—Jno. W. Smart.

Member of County Executive Committee—J. Allen Turkett.

The following-named gentlemen were elected to represent this Club in the County Convention, which meets on the 21st inst.: R. W. Craig, J. A. Turkett, T. R. Smart and J. S. Gannell.

On motion, it was unanimously and enthusiastically resolved, that the name of Major T. W. Woodward be placed before the Democracy of Fairfield county for the office of State Senator.

After some other business of minor importance, the Club adjourned to meet on the first Saturday in August, if not sooner called together by the president. Jno. W. SMART, Secretary.

READ THIS!

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO DO a successful business, and that is "on the square" with everybody. In this age of humbug and quackery, the manufacture of a medicine which claims merit should not be afraid to trust the people. I am not afraid. I claim and assert that "Dr. DRYDEN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY" will CURE

Liver Complaint, Female Complaint, Scrofula, Constipation, Biliousness, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Dropsy, Eruptions, &c., &c.

And the many disorders which arise from their origin in the diseased state of the Blood. And I hereby authorize my agents in every case where the purchaser has given the remedy a fair trial, and perceives no benefit to be derived therefrom, to refund the money. I don't want a penny of any one's money that I cannot give FULL VALUE for. Square dealing is bound to pay in the long run.
